LAUREN KAEPNER NAMED VICE PRESIDENT, EVERYTHING BUT THE HOUSE

(CINCINNATI – Sept. 10, 2014) Everything But the House (EBTH) has hired Lauren Kaepner as vice president of sales to oversee the bidder and seller experience in the growing company’s six markets.

EBTH is a first-of-its kind online destination for unique estate sale items.

“I was attracted to the organization because EBTH is a complete, one-stop solution for customers,” Kaepner said. “It is my goal to provide a compassionate approach to complete online estate and consignment sales that leaves property owners feeling at peace, and therefore empowered, to focus on other priorities in their lives.”

Prior to working for EBTH, Kaepner was district sales manager for the business solutions division of Office Depot. A native of Florida, she is a graduate of Xavier University and is active in the Cincinnati-area community. She currently serves as board vice president of the Villages of Providence homeowner’s association in West Chester, and actively volunteers in outreach programs for Bellarmine Chapel and for Junior Achievement as a volunteer for Lakota Schools.

Kaepner lives in West Chester, Ohio with her husband, Brian, of 11 years. Together they have two children.

About EBTH

Everything But the House (EBTH) connects buyers to unique pieces from estate sales across the country. This first-of-its-kind online estate sale and consignment experience offers the thrill of an auction in a trusted environment. With 45-50 sales a month, and items always starting at just $1 —there’s always something new to discover at EBTH.com

EBTH presents sales based out of Cincinnati, Columbus, Lexington, Louisville, Indianapolis and Nashville, and is expanding to additional cities. The EBTH team hopes to evolve the site into the world’s most-loved, most exciting resource to find special antique and modern pieces.
